Syria Crisis: Week of Compassion Committee Approves Largest Emergency Grant to Date

This week (Dec. 15) our hearts have been wrenched again by the crisis in Syria, especially in Aleppo, as conflict intensified. The media continues to remind us that this is one of the worst humanitarian crises in the world today. Over 12 million people have been displaced since the war began in 2011. In the last several weeks, Week of Compassion has provided emergency grants to our partners through Global Ministries to support Syrian refugees through the winter months. Just this week, the Week of Compassion Committee approved an emergency grant to provide nearly $250,000 from our unrestricted Compassion In Action Fund for the global refugee crises surrounding the Middle East. The need is vast and varied: From those still in war-torn areas inside Syria, to those who have fled and are staying in refugee camps throughout the Middle East, to those who have sought asylum throughout Eastern Europe. The grants approved by the Week of Compassion Committee provide support to refugees and migrants in each of these areas, and respond to the unique needs identified by partners on the ground. Within Syria, especially in Aleppo, funds provide immediate food and water relief, delivered through our network of church partners who create a collaborative network of compassion in dire circumstances. Although there has been a ceasefire in Aleppo, violence has not ceased. As of Thursday morning, our partners remain in Aleppo providing food and water even as the situation develops. During this time we are called as church to respond to our sisters and brothers in need. We hold the suffering of the Syrian people in prayer and we continue to pray that all people come to live in peace. Your generosity and support allows our church to be present with the suffering and in solidarity with the vulnerable. In this season of Advent, we await Christ's coming into the world. As we wait, we prepare Christ's way through our actions: comforting the weeping, healing the wounded, feeding the hungry, and protecting the vulnerable.

Craig Miller's Presentation of the first Norma Miller/Drennan Singers' Scholarship to Matthew Hoepfner—December 18, 2016

Thank you, Jimmy Spear and Micki Kirkham for inviting me to this very special occasion of honoring my mom, Norma Miller, by presenting the very first Norma Miller/Drennan Singers' Scholarship.

First, I would like to say it's great to be home in this church. The memories I have of growing up in this church from years in the nursery with Moray Loring, to leading worship with Muriel Leach in Children's Worship hour, spending Sunday afternoons in Chi Rho and Youth Group, being a King and Shepherd in the annual Christmas Pageant with Connie Guy to performing many, many Sunday's with my mom on trumpet. I can't tell you and thank you enough for the support you have shown me throughout the years and how much of a positive impact it has had on my life. I am currently the Director of Bands at Park Hill South High School and the Adult Orchestra Conductor at the United Methodist Church of the Resurrection with Pastor Adam Hamilton in Leawood, Kansas. I cannot tell you how many times I have referenced my experience here at First Christian Church, whether about hymns we have sung, or a song I have performed on trumpet for this congregation. Your support and nurturing of my musical experience continues to be so very important in my spirit journey. Thank you, First Christian Church, for helping make me who I am today.

Prior to my mom's death, she made me promise many things—as if she knew her time was short. One of those was to use any memorial gifts that might be left in her name for something that lasts. She said, "Do not buy things, but use any gifts for the good of people." There is nothing more lasting than education. My mom was an amazing and meticulous teacher who still teaches me every day of my life. She taught music to many of us, as well as students with learning disabilities at Lee Elementary School. When she passed away suddenly in 2009, we established a Norma Miller/Drennan Singers' Music Scholarship to be awarded to someone who made a significant contribution to the music ministry of First Christian Church.

Mom had an extensive and loving commitment to the music program and Christian Education here in First Christian Church. In addition to creating and leading The Drennan Singers for nearly three decades, she was President of the Church Board, and was also Director of Christian Education. Mom's musical gifts to First Christian Church included playing the piano and scheduling and rehearsing church musicians for early morning worship each Sunday from 1975-2009. She often played with Mary Bancroft for the 10:30 service, as well as for other events, such as weddings, funerals, and weekly services at Lenoir and The Bluffs. She would never take money for her services.

So today, we honor my mom's service to this church by presenting the first scholarship in her name and in the name of her beloved Drennan Singers. The endowment funding for this scholarship originated from gifts given to the Norma Miller Memorial, established in 2009 and since then, the Drennan Singers and many others have continued to make on-going contributions to the scholarship fund. I especially want to thank Lorene Trickey and Brenda Mosby for their tireless efforts in growing the scholarship fund. Several First Christian Church families who love music and my mom have moved established funds and/or requested that family memorials be given to the Norma Miller/Drennan Singers' Scholarship endowment fund. These families include:

Pat Lawnick-Ritchie, Marian and Ferd Roy Lightner, Harold Rosebaum, George R. Ross, Gary Rybolt, Odette Schaffer, Frances Seltsam, Mildred Todd, Meadow Woodbury.

Thank you all for your generous support. Thank you, Drennan Singers and Gene Kirkham for keeping my mom's memory alive and allowing us to be able to begin the awarding of our annual scholarship. And, thanks to the members of the congregation as a whole who continue to make contributions to this scholarship so we can help support our youth as they pursue a degree in higher education. We hope that your generosity will continue, so that we might increase the amount of each annual award.

Today we honor Matthew Hoepfner to be the first recipient of the Norma Miller/Drennan Singers' Scholarship. Matthew is an amazing musician who was selected as a member of the prestigious Missouri All-State Band as a flute player. He was drum major at Rock Bridge High School and is currently working on an engineering degree at Missouri S & T in Rolla, while continuing his music by participating in multiple musical ensembles. Not only do Matthew's accomplishments make him a perfect recipient of this scholarship, but when I Facebook-stalked Matthew, I found a quote on his website I know my mom would have loved:

"I love all of my instruments. Music is my life, and I wouldn't want it any other way!"

Matthew, thank you for your contributions to the music ministry of this church and congratulations on being selected as the first recipient of the Norma Miller/ Drennan Singers Scholarship.

News of People & Place

Congratulations to Ben and Beth Nelms who celebrate their 54th wedding anniversary on December 27th.

Prayers in this week extended for:

Colleen Nilges in the death of her mother Helen Lafferty of Princeton, IL. Services were held in that town on Dec. 13.

Mary and Mike Bancroft in the death of Mary's brother, Robert Douglas of Springfield, MO. Robert passed earlier this fall. A service is planned for late January at FCC, Columbia.

Debbie Potthast shares good news from cancer testings: lungs are clear of malignancy, brain spots are still being monitored. Prayers continue!

David Polach has shown improvement since start his monthly chemo treatments and will continue for several months.

The single digit temperatures and potential ice cancelled the annual Christmas Caroling last Sunday afternoon. The CYF (high school youth group) will not let this hinder their sharing of tidings. They will be taking a couple hours of their first day of break (Wednesday, 21st) to head out to carol to those who are home bound.

Special note: an additional thanks goes to Janelle Patterson for helping with the Tasting Party which followed the Christmas Pageant on December 11th.

Thanks to the “Wrappers”

Thanks to the nine Drennan Group members and guests who had fun wrapping the Christmas presents that had been donated for the children at Coyote Hill Christian Children's Home. A very worthwhile service project and our efforts are very much appreciated. The prize goes to Susan who figured out how to wrap a bicycle! Thanks to all~Sharon Winner

Friends, as the week comes approaching the birth of Christ, and as it has been most cold in these days, the following hymn is one not so popular but yet oh so beautiful in verse and tune. Look it up on the internet/ youtube for a good version – you will find it to be lovely. Merry Christmas

See Amid the Winter's Snow

See amid the winter's snow,
born for us on earth below,
see, the gentle Lamb appears,
promised from eternal years.

Refrain:

Hail that ever blessèd morn,
hail redemption's happy dawn,
sing through all Jerusalem:
Christ is born in Bethlehem.

Lo, within a manger lies
he who built the starry skies;
he who, thronèd in height sublime,
sits amid the cherubim. Refrain

Say, ye holy shepherds, say, what your joyful news today.
wherefore have ye left your sheep
on the lonely mountain steep? Refrain

“As we watched at dead of night,
lo, we saw a wondrous light;
angels singing ‘Peace on earth’
told us of the Savior's birth.” Refrain

Sacred Infant, all divine,
what a tender love was thine,
thus to come from highest bliss down to such a world as this. Refrain

Teach, O teach us, holy Child,
by thy face so meek and mild,
teach us to resemble thee,
in thy sweet humility. Refrain

Words: Edward Caswall (1814-1878), 1851

Music: HUMILITY by John Goss, 1871
